Scrofula

Swollen Glands, Scrofula Sores, Hip Disease, boils, Pimples, Eruptions Tell the Story—Dreadful Consequences of Impure Blood.
Certainly scrofula, if anything, may be called the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world—offensive, painful, debilitating, stubborn. Outward applications do not cure. Emollients may palliate, they cannot abolish the evil. There is one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is absolutely without an equal.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofulous humor and impure blood and am now almost entirely cured of the eruptions with which I have been afflicted for the past year. My face, chest and back were badly broken out." FRED B. ORWAY, Woodstock, Vt.

REGATTA DAY AT HONOLULU

pulled over the course seaward. The Boonie had good ground for a jibe and it is pity that the crew could not have been arranged for an exciting race. Gil and King are comparatively recent men. It is understood that the Gladys agree to one of these two. Dr. W. T. Monserrat and both King and Gil were too much of a good thing.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofulous humor and impure blood and am now almost entirely cured of the eruptions with which I have been afflicted for the past year. My face, chest and back were badly broken out." FRED B. ORWAY, Woodstock, Vt.

At 10:42 they crossed the line, the Bonnie leading a narrow second. At the entrance to the channel the Gladys had overcome the advantage of the Bonnie and by the time the finish was reached she had gained quite a lead in the other yacht.

The Gladys was first at the Waikiki stake boat, making the turn at 11:19. The Bonnie came around one minute and a half later and both boats squared away and set their spinnakers. At the bell buoy the Bonnie had made up half a minute on the leading boat, passing at 11:33 and the Gladys at 11:34.

When off the harbor the Gladys ran into a calm and the Bonnie which was quite a distance to windward kept going for awhile but soon swallowed in the same calm. The Gladys got the wind first and passed an imaginary line drawn from the tower of the pilot house over the lighthouse, two minutes ahead of the Bonnie.

The second turn, near the entrance to Pearl Harbor, was made by the Bonnie at 12:42 the Gladys being four minutes behind. The wind though increasing was very variable and as the boats neared the entrance again, the Gladys forged ahead and beat the Bonnie to the heliway by four minutes.

She finished about five minutes ahead of the Bonnie and thus demonstrated her ability and beat her former rival to a lead of wind.

The Gladys was sailed by T. W. Heber and the Bonnie by Judge Wilex.

The second race was between the Helene and Hood's.

The latter sailed by L. A. Thompson and the former by Harry Weitman. It was a close race, the Helene taking the lead after the Bonnie had been about six minutes all the distance leading her in by about fifteen minutes.

The third race was started out in a procession. First over to the line was Hood's in 10:47, the Helene in 11:10, the Bonnie in 12:42 and the Gladys in 12:53. The Alpine M. at 12:56, the Elgin at 12:57 and the Abbie at 12:58. Coming down the course to the buoy the Alpine made a run of 10 minutes on the Waikiki side and the Elgin picked up 8 minutes on the Abbie. On the return trip the Elgin lost 10 minutes, Dow's lost 10, the Alpine 10, the Bonnie 10 and the Gladys 10. Coming down the course to the buoy the Alpine had gained one minute and a half on the Elgin boat.

An empty boat cannot stand.

Neither can poor, weak, thin blood nourish and sustain the physical system. For strength of nerves and muscles there must be pure, rich, vigorous blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard preparation for the blood, and its many remarkable virtues and the result it does everyday go down when it prove it is just what you need if you are weak and infirm.
